Dear Sahar:

On behalf of the P.O.W.E.R. Collaborative Network, I wish to express my most sincere appreciation for your presentation at our formal meeting this month, hosted by Jobing.com. You provided a renewed excitement and enlightenment for our members by sharing your unique insight on processes of social media associated with job and business development.

The anticipated economic turn around will hopefully open financial opportunities for our organization to bring you back on a technical assistance contract in order to detail your expertise with Internet marketing for nonprofit organizations. The P.O.W.E.R. Collaborative Network member organizations cover a large range of social service provisions and your advanced exposure to online communication tools and skills will certainly enhance their capacities surrounding community outreach.

Thank you for your support of career and business development. I commend you for your special commitment to help nonprofits grow and to deliver more efficient service for their clients. Please feel free to call me should you think we can be of assistance to your work.

Respectfully yours,

Dean L. Jones, C.P.M.
